

Discovering the Adult Baby in you - the joys, the struggles, the highs and the lows.

ABDL Hopes, Dreams and Ambitions – a new survey

As ABDLs, we often want and desire much more than we suspect we can have in real life. The mere idea of spending large amounts of time as an infant or toddler is near impossible for most. ABDIScovery has a new survey that seeks to identify what are the things and behaviours that we would like to experience - were it possible - and how they make us feel. What are our inner hopes, dreams and ambitions for our ABDL natures without the strictures that real life imposes upon us?

This survey is about what you would WANT, rather than what you can have, so enjoy the chance to express your inner hopes and dreams. Answer honestly about what you would want and desire if negative attitudes etcetera were not in play. This is obviously part fantasy, but is aimed at discovering just who we would be and how would we behave if diapers and ABDL were considered natural and normal by the rest of society.

FOCUS ON...

'Coffee with Rosie: why does my partner want to wear diapers?'

The biggest struggle any ABDL has is the struggle with how others perceive diapers and regression and most importantly, the partner. Friends might tolerate, but partners are more invested and frequently, unilaterally reject diapers and baby regression. The reasons are many and invariably complex, but it remains the biggest frustration of them all.

'Coffee with Rosie' is Rosalie's short book based on seven 'coffee discussions' with a partner of an ABDL about what it is all about. Based in large part on her own experience of trying to understand, handle and integrate an ABDL into her own relationship, this book is notionally written for the partner, but is an invaluable resource for ABDLs themselves to try and understand how their partner feels and is reacting to it all.

AB Discovery is wanting you to tell us the kinds of books you want to read. We already have a number of non-fiction books that are well-regarded, but we need to know what else you want to read about. As well as various topics of non-fiction related to ABDL, tell us what kind of fiction you would like to read as well. Tell us what you like, don't like and what you think would be the most enjoyable styles of fiction you would like to read. Email us at abdiscovery@adam.com.au and we will see what we can do!
