You may have wondered where we have been over the last few months. We have still been around, still working and still answering emails. But we have had lengthy sickness and Rosalie even broke her arm!

But we are back now and continuing the work of making the life of a regressive adult baby that little bit easier.

Coming up: The long awaited session – Infantile Regression: Natures Time Travel

This will include a detailed document, video and other materials. Take a look here at a preview of the document. If you want to get more information or clues on just what is happening inside you when you regress, then this is the session for you!

Available only to subscribers to AB Discovery, we are making a package deal of all of our downloadable products to date:

1. Session One: The three sided nature of diaper attraction
2. There's a baby in my bed! (book)
3. So your teenager is wearing diapers... (ebook)

Just $30 for these three valuable products
