

Discovering the Adult Baby in you - the joys, the struggles, the highs and the lows.

Need something else to read?

"We all have a tale to tell about how we started wearing nappies (or diapers!) and each tale is different. There are varying themes, but there is the one consistent one that nappies 'called to us' when we were young, and that attraction grew to become a 'siren call' in later years. We were helpless in the embrace of that cloth nappy or plastic disposable that for reasons we didn't understand – and maybe never did – drew us to wear and wet them.

For some, it was part of wanting to become a baby again and for others, a response to extended bedwetting. For others still, it was just the nappy; just the feel of its comfort and security that led us to wear them.

As children, these feelings are tough to handle, never-mind understand. Most adults don't understand what we are going through and most react badly... or worse."

ABDiscovery is proud to announce a new book:

Fear and Joy: A life in and out of nappies

Getting my nappy changed on the way home!

This 60,000 word, illustrated book is the story of one UK boy growing up in the 70s and 80s as a late bedwetter whose attraction to nappies has remained with him up until this day.

There is an immense value in reading the stories of how other people grew up and managed their nappy/diaper attraction and the events and people that were part of it.

Check out the link above. The book is available in PDF, Kindle or Paperback versions. $4.75
